The Hayley Petit Injury and Violence Prevention Fellowship

The Hayley Petit Injury and Violence Prevention Fellowship is awarded to six (6) women currently enrolled in a college or university. Fellowship recipients are recognized for their interest in injury and violence prevention.

ABOUT THE FELLOWSHIP:

Six (6) fellowship recipients will be selected for this exciting 8-week fellowship opportunity at Connecticut Children's Injury Prevention Center (IPC). The fellowship provides recipients with an introduction to the field of injury prevention within public health. Fellows will work with experts at the IPC to develop and design their own injury prevention-related project. In the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic, the fellowship will be offered online, with some optional opportunities for in person learning experiences. Selected fellows will participate in this immersion into the field of injury prevention through readings, virtual discussions, and presentations by IPC faculty and staff.

The fellowship is open to students who identify as women, are U.S. citizens, and currently enrolled in a degree-granting program of a college or university. Recipients must be able to meet virtually for 6 hours per week from February 7, 2022, through April 1, 2022.

Each fellowship recipient is awarded a $500 stipend.

IMPORTANT DATES:

Application Deadline: Friday, January 14, 2022.

Applicants Notified of Decision: Friday, January 28, 2022.

Program Start Date: Monday, February 7, 2022.

Program Concludes: Friday, April 1, 2022.

HOW TO APPLY:

Submit your résumé and one page essay explaining:

- Your interest in injury and violence prevention
- What you hope to accomplish during the fellowship
- How the fellowship connects with your long-term career goals
